

VIOLENCE AND THRIVING ECONOMIES IN MEXICO

Join us for a conference exploring how prosperity and violence intertwine across legal and illegal markets. Scan the QR code for details or visit thrivingeconomies.eventbrite.com. Registration is required.

This event is organized by the Social Study of Disappearance Lab and sponsored by the Alliance Program, Centro de Estudios Mexicanos y Centroamericanos (CEMCA), Incite at Columbia, the Lemann Center, and the Institute of Latin American Studies at Columbia University.

9AM – 6PM ET
13 NOV 2025

CONVENORS

Adam Baczko

CNRS Research Associate Professor, CERI, Sciences Po & CEMCA

Adèle Blazquez

CNRS Research Associate Professor in Anthropology, LAP, EHESS & CEMCA

Claudio Lomnitz

Professor and Chair, Dept. of Anthropology, Columbia University

WITH PRESENTATIONS BY

Arturo Díaz Cruz

Professor-Researcher, CEDUA, El Colegio de México

Carlos Antonio Flores Pérez

Professor-Researcher, CIESAS

Elizabeth Ferry

Professor of Anthropology, Brandeis University

Guillermo Trejo

Professor of Political Science, University of Notre Dame

Natalia Mendoza

Co-Director, Altar: Centro de Investigación

Rodrigo Meneses Reyes

Professor-Researcher, CIDE

Salvador Maldonado Aranda

Professor-Researcher, El Colegio de Michoacán

Gobierno de México

Ciencia y Tecnología

Ministerio de Ciencia, Tecnología e Innovación

EL COLEGIO
DE MICHOACÁN, A. C.

#Colmich
para Todos